Dear Colleagues:

I am attaching and enclosing some important information in advance of our Northwest Interagency Partnership (NIPSC) meeting next Tuesday, April 4, which will be focused on community-efforts underway in the Spokane area and how federal resources from our agencies can be leveraged to help. Please take a moment to review these materials before our meeting, if you can.

For The Zone Project, city of Spokane, please review the attached PDFs, which will give you an overview of the goals, methods and projects underway.

For the Spokane Tribe Promise Zone, here is a brief outline of the goals:

Goal 1: Create Quality Jobs

- Renewable Energy
- Technology
- Construction

Goal 2: Expand Educational Opportunities

- Downtown Spokane Campus
- Tribal College Accreditation

Goal 3: Boost Innovation

- Business Development
- Community Wealth Building

Goal 4: Reduce Crime

- o Community Policing
 - o Revised Law & Order Codes
- Goal 5: Increase affordable Housing
- o Wellpinit Core Revitalization

Finally, I am attaching a handout from the National Park Service, who also asked me to share information about the Latah/Hangman Corridor trail project underway in the Spokane area. NPS will not be formally presenting at this meeting but thought this handout might be pertinent to the conversation since it addresses a project they are undertaking in the Spokane area.

Full calendar details are below, including the address of the meeting and a call-in number and skype meeting link that you can use if you will be attending the meeting remotely.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. See you next week.

Best,

Sarah Lindsley
